Dear Rumney Families,

Happy (almost) Spring! I hope that the sunshine and warmer temperatures this weekend and into next week bring some great outdoor time for you and your family. I also know many students and families are big winter sports fans and are sad to see winter on its way out.

Today’s update/reminder is about Base Camp, which I know you have received many notes and reminders about already. Thanks for being patient and understanding to support our success here at school. A few things to keep in mind:

- The current guidance and restrictions around travel and gatherings are included here for your reference -- please make sure to check out the current information
- The travel and gathering question in Base Camp has now changed to reflect students/families and staff following the current guidance
  - Responding “Yes” in the current version of that question refers to having followed the guidance and contributes to students being eligible to attend school
- It remains so helpful that all families who are able to complete the Base Camp screening before arrival at school do so. Although warmer temperatures are on the horizon for next week it will likely still be cold at arrival time
  - When students have completed the Base Camp screening, entry is very quick and students are not waiting outdoors for our nurse to complete a screening
  - It is very common to make an incorrect selection during the home screening process, so having an adult at home take temperatures and entering into Base Camp ensures accurate information for the health and safety of our school community.

Wishing you a wonderful weekend,

Mr. Provost
